Look Sharp, Neighbork Our rustic-us neighbor of the Robe sonian is trying to poke fun at us. Pender County.

A dispatch to the JOURNAL from Mr. E. W. Kerr, Senator from Sampson county, received last night, announces that the bill to establish the new county of Pender, from portions of New Hanover, passed its final reading in the House yesterday, and is new a law. The county of Pender is now an established fact.

The Witson Drawing. The drawing of the Gift Concert for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum took place at Wilson last Wednesday evening.

The houses and lots were not included in the list of prizes, being withdrawn therefrom in consequence of a sufficient number of tickets not being taken. The highest prize, $500, ticket No. 89, was drawn by Mr. Wil liams of the Battleboro Advance. Parties in this city holding tickets will find the list of numbers and prizes at this office.

Cotton for Liverpool. Schr. E. S. Powell and the British barque Atalanta cleared Saturday for Liverpool, the former by Messrs. Williams & Murchison, with 1,550 bales of cotton, and the latter by Messrs. Sprunt & Hinson, with 961 bales of cotton. The cargo of the Powell is much the largest load of cotton ever carried out from this port, and is estimated, at $70 a bale, to be worth the nice little sum of $108,500.

According to the same estimate, this would place the value of the Atalan-ta's cargo at $67,270; in all, $175,770 will vield to none in this common. ta's cargo at $67,270; in all, $175,770 will yield to none in this common

New Papers. The Alamance Gleaner is the title of a new weekly paper which comes to us from Graham, in Alamance county, the first issue of which is now before us. It is published by Messrs. A Distressing Tragedy. We regret to learn of a very distressing accident which occurred at take proper steps to secure the interbly fatally injured. The circumstances. as transmitted to us, were as follows: About half past 1 o'clock, as the North Carolina train was moving up to the shed, preparatory to taking on passengers for Raleigh and the West. a lad of about fourteen years of age, by the name of Cleaveland Denmark, the son of Mr. S. H. Denmark, formerly a merchant of this city, but now resident in Goldsboro, attempted to jump on the train while it was in motion. In doing so he slipped and fell on the track and the wheel of the coach passed over him, cutting off one leg and crushing the other so fearfully it was thought that it would be necessary to amputate it. The shocked eye-witnesses of the affair raised the lad and conveyed him to his known or done. home, where, at the last accounts, it was thought that he could not recover.

A Railroad Tragedy. We have just learned of a tragedy impartial verdict of a jury, and furwhich occurred on the line of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, almost within the city limits, on last Tuesday night. It seems that on the night in question an old colored man by the name of Enoch Usher, an inmate of the Poor House, who had been in to the city and was on his return home, was overtaken by the passenger train going North, on the trestle work of Smith's Creek bridge, and before the train could be stopped, was struck by mands the subject to honor, and the the plow and knocked over into the servants to obey; and the blessings creek. Another colored man, who was just ahead of him, was a witness of the circumstance and himself came near being a victim. He endeavored to assist the deceased across the bridge, but without effect, and was obliged to make shift for his own life.
